

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEONS

Electronic Skills Pavilion Presentation Application

2010 Annual Meeting
New Orleans, LA • Exhibit Dates: March 10-12

The AAOS Electronic Skills Pavilion is located in the exhibit hall and will include 45-minute presentations that showcase current electronic products and applications developed for the orthopaedic surgeon. The Electronic Skills Theater located within the pavilion will be set with the following:

- Standard stage with podium
- Laser pointer
- Lavalier microphone
- PC and standard CD ROM
- One screen in center of back wall for computer and video projection
- Seating for approximately 100

Below are the details for 2010 Annual Meeting. The schedule usually allows for each topic to be presented twice, on different dates and times. Acceptance of presentations will be confirmed by email by December 14, 2009.

Dates: Wednesday, March 10 through Friday, March 12, One hour time slots from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm

Topics: Basics of Adobe Photoshop	PowerPoint
Digital Imaging	Searching the Internet and MEDLINE
Digital Radiography	Video
EMR- Electronic Medical Records	Voice Recognition
Handheld Computing (PDAs)	Other
Patient Education via your Website

Name: _____
Address: _____
City, State, ZIP: _____
Phone: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____
Title: _____
Presentation Description: _____
Dates and Times Available: _____

Accepted Applications will be required to provide handout materials by January 15, 2010.
Handouts are required and should provide enough content so audience can listen to the presentation and avoid extensive note taking; need not list all points; duplication of slides is not what the audience wants, just key points, references, and URL's if indicated.

Applications are due by November 23, 2009
Fax: 847-823-1273 • e-mail: exhibits@aaos.org

American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons • Exhibits
6300 North River Road • Rosemont, IL 60018 • Phone: 847-384-4174