

ASPECTS OF MUSCULOSKELETAL CARE WELL SUITED TO VIRTUAL HEALTH MODALITIES

- Physical exam findings are easily seen on video
- Imaging can be done locally if not already available at the time of referral
- Test results can be discussed remotely
- Primary treatment strategies are noninvasive
- Little need for prophylactic disease monitoring
- Patient preference is paramount
- Management of psychosocial factors is central to care