

BOARD OF SPECIALTY SOCIETIES – OVERVIEW

(<http://www.aaos.org/about/bos>)

Collaboration on issues; resolution through communications; unity among leaders.

The Board of Specialty Societies (BOS) brings together the leaders of musculoskeletal specialty societies to address issues of mutual concern and to advise the AAOS Board of Directors on issues, such as the AAOS Annual Meeting, continuing medical education, advocacy, and research. The BOS also provides opportunities for shared leadership, shared governance, organizational benchmarking, collaborative program development, and communication among member organizations.

The BOS is comprised of 23 member organizations:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. American Association for Hand Surgery | 12. Musculoskeletal Infection Society |
| 2. American Association of Hip and Knee Surgery | 13. Musculoskeletal Tumor Society |
| 3. American Orthopaedic Foot and Ankle Society | 14. North American Spine Society |
| 4. American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine | 15. Orthopaedic Rehabilitation Association |
| 5. American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons | 16. Orthopaedic Research Society |
| 6. American Society for Surgery of the Hand | 17. Orthopaedic Trauma Association |
| 7. American Spinal Injury Association | 18. Pediatric Orthopaedic Society of North America |
| 8. Arthroscopy Association of North America | 19. Ruth Jackson Orthopaedic Society |
| 9. Cervical Spine Research Society | 20. Scoliosis Research Society |
| 10. J. Robert Gladden Orthopaedic Society | 21. Society of Military Orthopaedic Surgeons |
| 11. Limb Lengthening and Reconstruction Society | 22. The Hip Society |
| | 23. The Knee Society |

The BOS exists to:

1. Serve as an effective direct knowledge-based link between the orthopaedic specialty societies and the AAOS.
2. Identify and support cooperation, unity, relationships, and activities among the specialty societies and between the societies and the AAOS.
3. Provide a forum for the society leaders to exchange ideas, information, and concerns.
4. Serve as a sounding board for various AAOS initiatives.
5. Participate in important AAOS organizational activities, such as developing recommendations on proposed AAOS Bylaws amendments, resolutions, and Standards of Professionalism.
6. Assist in the implementation of AAOS policies and initiatives.
7. Serve as a resource to the AAOS Board of Directors and other AAOS organizational units regarding matters of importance to orthopaedic specialty societies and their members.
8. Support communications and collaborative program development for AAOS councils and cabinets.

REPORTING RELATIONSHIP

The BOS reports to the AAOS Board of Directors (see House of AAOS graphic).

LEADERSHIP

The BOS is led by four officers – secretary, chair-elect, chair, and past-chair. Each position is a one-year term. The secretary and chair-elect are elected each year by the BOS with the aid of its Nominating Committee. The chair is the immediate former chair-elect. The chair, chair-elect, and secretary serve on the AAOS Board of Directors. Candidates must be BOS representatives. The BOS officers shall assume the BOS liaison responsibilities within the AAOS Councils and Cabinet and provide updates to the BOS routinely. They evaluate and report the success of the restructuring annually to the BOS member organizations and the AAOS Board of Directors. If necessary, they refine the structure and procedures. Leadership will also form workgroups and project teams as needed.

SOCIETY REPRESENTATIVES

- The presidential line representative shall be within the society's presidential line, shall serve a one-year term, and may be reappointed by the society for additional terms, not to exceed three terms. The presidential line representative can vote for their member organization.
- The member representative will serve one three-year term and may be reappointed for one additional term. The member representative must be an AAOS member-in-good standing. The member representative can vote for their member organization.
- The executive director will serve as a representative during his/her tenure as the society's lead staff member.

Each organization may appoint up to two society members as BOS representatives for its slotted seats. The term for the Member Representative position is three years. The Presidential Line Representative must be within the organization's Presidential Line during his/her term. The executive directors of the member organizations are also BOS representatives. The term for the executive directors is for the duration of their employment with the society.

The slotted seats are as follows:

1. Presidential Line Representative
2. Member Representative
3. Executive Director

COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

The BOS has several committees to enhance its vibrancy:

- Executive Director Forum
 - Discuss ideas and matters of common concern
- Fellowship Committee
 - Establish, promote, and monitor "common" Match elements, such as application forms and announcement dates
 - Serve as the orthopaedic fellowship information clearinghouse, including the Match
 - Troubleshoot difficulties of development, implementation, or maintenance within individual subspecialty fellowship programs
 - Provide a forum for strategic discussions of fellowship issues and concerns of residents and orthopaedic residency and fellowship program directors
 - Increase transparency and communications regarding the fellowship process
 - Serve as a forum for discussion and resolution of concerns or conflicts, including those related to common accreditation requirements
 - Maintain and report fellowship data which includes demographics on applicants, fellows, outcomes, and results
 - Work with the subspecialty societies to facilitate the development and updating of guidelines and competency measures across specialty society fellowships
 - Create educational tools to enhance residents' knowledge of, and experience with, the orthopaedic fellowship process, subspecialties, and related topics

- Provide any needed oversight of the centralized infrastructure supporting alternative accreditation pathways
- Inform the AAOS Board of Directors of any fellowship issues
- Oversee the development and implementation of the Fellowship Directors' Forum and its related activities
- Nominating Committee
 - Select at least one nominee for Chair-Elect and at least one nominee for Secretary for approval by the BOS member organizations
- Quality and Patient Safety Action Fund
 - Review grant applications and award grants to BOS member organizations
 - Monitor the progress of each awarded grant
 - Develop a mechanism to share information gained from each grant

The BOS also works with the Board of Councilors on the following three BOC/BOS committees:

1. Bylaws Review Committee;
2. Professionalism Committee; and the
3. Resolutions Committee.

MEETINGS AND ATTENDANCE

The BOS committees and roundtables meet throughout the year. The BOS, as a whole, meets during the AAOS Annual Meeting, the National Orthopaedic Leadership Conference, and the Fall Meeting.
