

Leadership Positions Open in 2023

The positions to be filled are listed below, along with a partial description of responsibilities, desired experience, and time commitments:

Second Vice President (succeeds to 1st Vice President, President, and Past President)

- Sustained record of leadership in Orthopaedic Surgery
- Leadership positions on the AAOS Board of Directors, Councils, Committees or similar experience in the Board of Councilors (BOC), Board of Specialty Societies (BOS), orthopaedic specialty societies, or state/regional orthopaedic societies
- Required understanding of the AAOS governance structure
- Required participation at all meetings of the AAOS Board of Directors and the Combined National Orthopaedic Leadership Conference (NOLC)/Fall Meeting
- Participation in weekly Presidential Line Conference Calls
- Participation in assigned AAOS committees and Project Teams
- Adherence to Roles and Responsibilities of Members of the Board of Directors
- Time commitment up to 180 days a year
- 4-year commitment

Member-at-Large [No Age Designation]

- Desirable to have previous or current participation in AAOS Councils, Committees or similar experience in BOC, BOS, orthopaedic specialty societies, or state/regional orthopaedic societies
- Required participation at all meetings of the AAOS Board of Directors and the Combined National Orthopaedic Leadership Conference (NOLC)/Fall Meeting
- Participation in AAOS Project Teams
- Adherence to Roles and Responsibilities of Members of the Board of Directors
- Commitment of 20-25 days per year
- 3-year commitment

Member-at-Large [Under Age 45] (younger than age 45 on March 13, 2023)

- Interest in AAOS governance
- Required participation at all meetings of the AAOS Board of Directors and the Combined National Orthopaedic Leadership Conference (NOLC)/Fall Meeting
- Participation in AAOS Project Teams
- Adherence to Roles and Responsibilities of Members of the Board of Directors
- Commitment of 20-25 days per year
- 3-year commitment