

Get out the vote in Utah

Election Day: November 3

Why should you vote?

Voting is the one of the most powerful ways to make your voice heard in our democracy, but in 2016, only 61.4% of the voting age population in the United States reported voting.

Modern technology has improved access to information on candidates and made it easier to register to vote in many areas, and it is vital to be aware of how you can participate in the 2020 election.

Utah's absentee and mail-in voting procedures

Permanent absentee / mail-in voting procedures:

- Every voter receives a mail-in ballot by default

2020 state absentee / mail-in voting status:

- Coronavirus updates: Counties required to provide in-person voting in some form for the November 3, 2020 election in addition to its default vote-by-mail system.

Deadlines to know for voting in Utah

Voter registration deadline:

October 4, 2020

Thirty days before an election; seven days if registering online

Same-day registration is permitted during early voting and on Election Day

Absentee / Mail-In voting ballot deadlines:

Request must be received by

Application Not Required

Automatically sends ballots to all eligible voters

Ballot submission deadline:

By mail: Postmarked by November 2, 2020.

Returned at a drop box: 8:00 pm on November 3, 2020 (Election Day).

How can you register to vote in Utah?

To register to vote in Utah, visit the State Board of Elections website for more information on voter eligibility and the registration process.

You can begin the registration process through Utah's Online Voter Registration System.

State Election Office

<http://www.elections.utah.gov>

Online Voter Registration System

<https://secure.utah.gov/voterreg/index.html>

Information is current as of: September 8, 2020