MORE INFORMATION

Exhibitors can create an account, register their exhibitor booth(s), and process cleaning orders with credit card payment through our booth cleaning application (<https://boothcleaning.sdccc.org>), up to two weeks prior to event move in to receive the advanced rate. Once the contracted move in date begins exhibitors are only able to process booth cleaning orders at the regular rate through the SDCCC Cleaning Services Desk located in the Exhibitor Services Center (location varies per event). Exhibitor booth cleaning orders processed with credit card payment acknowledge that you have read and accepted the Payment Policy and Terms and Conditions. If there are any issues or discrepancies with respect to cleaning please contact us immediately. For more information see our terms and conditions.

PLEASE NOTE

The SDCCC follows EPA and manufacturers' registered label instructions with respect to its use of cleaning and disinfecting products. If Exhibitors have questions or concerns relating to SDCCC's cleaning and disinfecting protocol or the products used, those questions should be directed to the Cleaning Services Desk using the contact information provided herein. SDCCC does not make any representations with respect to the risks or harm associated with the cleaning and disinfection products used. SDCCC is not liable or responsible for any illness, injuries, damages, discoloration, wear and tear, etc. from cleaning and/or disinfecting services or the cleaning and disinfecting agents utilized as part of these services. SDCCC does not make any representations with respect to the ability of such cleaning and disinfecting services to control or prevent the contracting or spread of any virus, including but not limited to the novel coronavirus (SARS-CoV-2). SDCCC is not liable or responsible for any contraction or spread of any virus, including but not limited to SARS-CoV-2.

Exhibitors must abide by the posted rules, protocol, warnings and instructions at the facility, along with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidance from government or public health authorities with respect to cleaning and sanitizing items and frequently touched surfaces within the exhibitor booth. SDCCC does not make any representations with respect to, nor is it liable or responsible for, any dwell time that may occur during the cleaning and application of the disinfection agents used in connection with these services.

Exhibitors must acknowledge that SARS-CoV-2 (also "COVID-19") has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization, and that it is extremely contagious and is thought to spread mainly through close contact from person-to-person. SDCCC cannot guarantee that Exhibitors' personnel and guests will not become infected with COVID-19 at events. Exhibitor shall indemnify SDCCC and its affiliates, officers, employees, agents and contractors against all damages, losses, claims, demands, actions and liabilities by Exhibitors' personnel and guests arising out of or related to infection with COVID-19, whether before, during or after attendance at the event, as provided in the Terms and Conditions associated with these services. SDCCC may require individuals registered by Exhibitors to acknowledge the risks of COVID-19 infection and waive liability prior to participation at events.

The San Diego Convention Center Corporation is the exclusive cleaning contractor. Exhibitor Appointment Contractors (EACs) are not permitted to provide this service. Discount available for services ordered fourteen (14) days before first day of move in. Cost of Cleaning Services will be invoiced on the total area of your booth. Due to material and labor costs, orders canceled before move-in will be charged 50% of original price. Similarly, orders canceled after move-in will be charged 100%. To avoid any misunderstanding regarding these services, please bring any discrepancies to our attention at the service desk. SDCCC will be unable to adjust invoices after the close of show.
