5. Regulations

a. AAOS does not endorse exhibitor functions and does not consider them a part of the official program.

b. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that all company personnel or third-party agents that are involved in Industry Sessions arrangements are aware of and adhere to AAOS rules and regulations.

c. Badges and Bar Codes

Industry Sessions will take place in meeting rooms on Level 3 of the Orange County Convention Center and in the Exhibit Hall at the Ask an Expert and the TechTalks theaters. All exhibitors and attendees will be required to wear their AAOS official badges for admission to these areas of the convention center. Exhibitors will be allowed to scan and capture AAOS badge bar code data at their Industry Sessions.

6. CME Accreditation

AAOS does not provide Continuing Medical Education (CME) accreditation for exhibitor educational events. Exhibitors are not allowed to offer CME credits for Industry Sessions.

7. Publicity and Advertising

a. All promotional materials (including announcements, invitations, emails, websites, advertisements, and flyers) referencing the Industry Sessions at the AAOS Annual Meeting must be approved by AAOS prior to printing and/or distribution. Final versions of materials should be submitted for approval to exhibits@aaos.org. While AAOS will make every effort to grant these approvals in a timely fashion, please allow a minimum of five (5) business days for approval.

b. The use of the name, insignia, logo, logotype or other identifying marks of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons/American Association of Orthopaedic Surgeons other than the approved exhibitor graphic, is never to be used in signs, advertising or promotions in any media or on descriptive product literature.

Refer to the Publicity and Advertising section of the Rules and Regulations at www.aaos.org/exhibitors for more information.

8. Signage

AAOS will provide a sign outside of the meeting room that promotes the Industry Sessions. Exhibitors may display signage in the exhibitor's booth and within the Industry Sessions presentation area.

9. Indemnification

Exhibitors assigned Industry Sessions at the AAOS 2020 Annual Meeting agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the AAOS, its employees, directors, agents, representatives and any affiliated organizations against any and all claims, judgments, fees, demands, settlements and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that arise as a result of the company's performance, or non-performance, of duties in this Agreement.

10. Violation of Rules and Regulations

As a condition for holding a session, each exhibitor shall agree to observe all exhibitor rules and regulations. Failure to abide by these rules and regulations will result in the loss of priority points or other action deemed appropriate by AAOS.
